UIST SIC 2026

Bio-Sword

Bio-Responsive Feedback for Virtual Sword Training

A VR kendo game: strike with mind, sword and body as one.

Try it! about 5 min

01 Ki-Ken-Tai no Itchi

In kendo, Japan's traditional martial art of the sword, a strike counts only when all three move as one.

MIND
気 Ki

Stay calm and focused.
EmotiBit biosignals

SWORD
剣 Ken

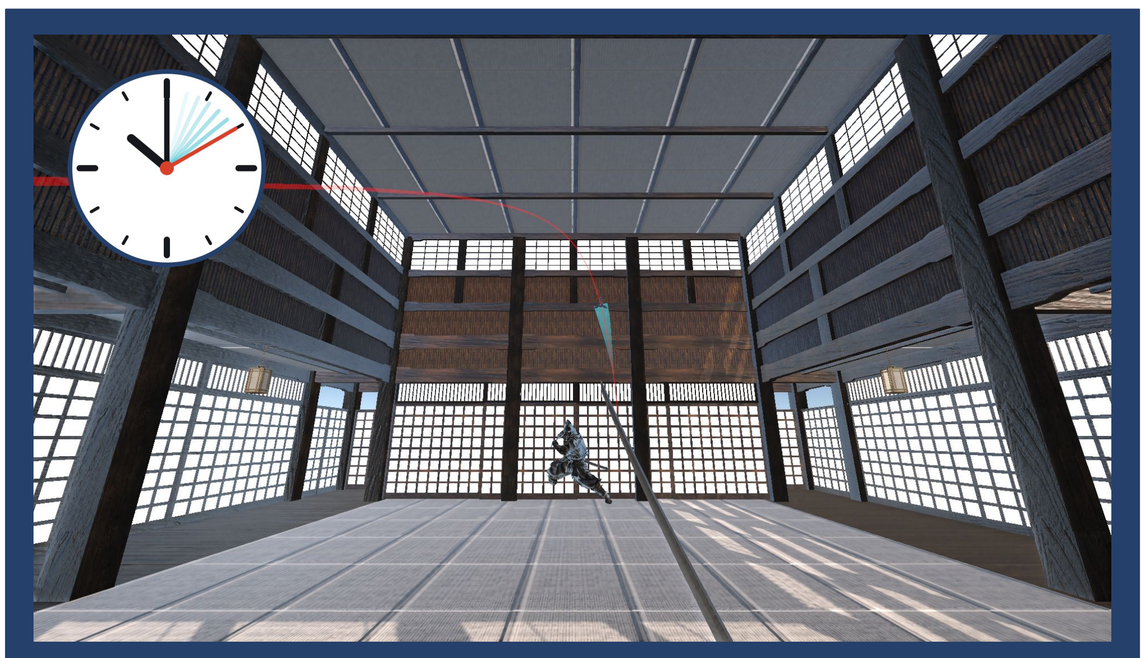

Strike sharply, then stop.
EmotiBit gyroscope

BODY
体 Tai

Keep your back straight.
Camera pose tracking (MediaPipe)

02 Your Body Changes the Game

Judged after every swing.

ALIGNED

Bullet Time

Ki, Ken and Tai line up: time slows down and shuriken paths appear.

DISRUPTED

Fog

Ki, Ken and Tai fall out of balance: fog blurs your view.

03 How to Play

About 4–5 minutes in total

1. Gear up ~2.5 min
EmotiBit + Meta Quest 3S, then a short calibration.

2. Slice the shuriken 100 s
A ninja throws shuriken. Cut them with your sword.

3. Check your rank
See your score and Ki-Ken-Tai averages on the leaderboard.

Juichun Yen, Kenta Shiki
AME Lab, The University of Tokyo

AME Lab
amelab.vr.u-tokyo.ac.jp